MONDAY EVENING, DEC. 8, 1902

LOCAL NEWS.

Sun rises tomorrow at 7:14 a. m. and sets at 4:42 p. m. High water at 12:30 a. m. and 6:50 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair; much colder tonight with a cold wave; Tuesday fair and cold; northwesterly winds, diminishing tonight.

Personal.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Portner announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Miss Alma, to Mr. Julius H. Koehler, son of Mr. Casper Koehler, of St. Louis, Mo. The wedding will take place in the early spring. Mr. and Mrs. Portner and their younger children are at present in Europe, but will return to Washington in January.

Mr. C. B. Swan has returned from a business trip to New York.

Mrs. William E. Fendall and Mrs. William Bryant will be at home, (219 S. Alfred street), Tuesday afternoons in December.

Miss Fanny Dixon, of 316 north Washington street, is in New York visiting Mr. H. C. Fahnestock, vice president of the Southern Railway Company, at 459 Madison avenue.

Mr. J. E. Norris, of this city, who is now connected with the Dun Agency in Havana, has sent letters to several friends in this city giving the causes which led up to the recent strikes in that city and many of the thrilling scenes in connection therewith, which are very interesting.

Mr. Wilber Kent, formerly of this city, but now of Newport News, was married in that city this afternoon to Miss Mildred Lear. He is expected here with his bride tomorrow.

Mr. W. P. Hall, of Baltimore, left for his home this morning after a visit to relatives here. Mr. Hall lived with his father at the Carlyle House. He says that at the time he lived there the hill on the rear had no wall and was solid. He left the house in May 1848.

Police Court Notes.

The following cases were disposed of in the Police Court this morning:

Benjamin Brooks, colored, arrested by Officer Griffin charged with a similar offense, was dismissed.

Sylvia Jones, colored, arrested by Conductor Crockett for a similar offense, was fined $5.

A white man, arrested by Officers Roberts and Young for drunken and disorderly conduct, forfeited $5 collaterally by failure to appear.

A white man, arrested by Officers Arlington and Nicholson for a similar offense, was fined $5.

Marshall Wanner, colored, arrested by the same officers charged with similar offenses, was dismissed for want of evidence.

Two white men, arrested by Officers Garvey and Nicholson for drunken and disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each, and another man arrested by Officer Smith charged with vagrancy, was sent to the chain gang for 20 days.

Roy Taylor, colored, charged with an assault on Alice Harris, colored, forfeited $5 by failure to appear.

The King Street Improvement.

The work of repaving King street with vitrified brick from the river front to Fayette street except about a square and a half extending from Columbus street to a point midway between Washington and St. Asaph, has been completed, and the work of tearing up the cobblestones and preparing the roadway between the streets named was being actively pushed today. It was at first determined to compel the electric railway company to replace the cobblestones on the portion which had been torn up while waiting for the arrival of the diamond switch to be used east of Washington street, but the contractors were anxious to finish their work and it was finally decided to go on with it, and as the switch is not in sight nor can anything be heard of it, to put down the roadway without the turn-out. The above conditions gave rise this morning to rumors of embroilment between the contractors and the railway officials, but the above are the facts in the case.

The High School Wins.

A large crowd witnessed the interscholastic track and field meet, which was held Saturday afternoon on the University Field, the contesting schools being the Episcopal High School, Woodberry Forest Academy, Jones University School, and Pantops Academy. The meet resulted in a sweeping victory for Episcopal High School, the representatives of that school winning all of the events except two. The two events lost by Episcopal High School were putting the shot, and the junior 220-yard dash, both of which were won by Woodberry Forest, her best men being Robertson and Walker. The best all-around work for Episcopal High School was done by A. C. Randolph, O. Randolph, Waples, and Crawford.

Yesterday.

The weather yesterday was variable and for the most part uncertain. There were spits of snow and slight rainfalls during the early part of the day, which were followed in the afternoon by breaks in the clouds and fair conditions. After dark the heavens became clear and the temperature cold. There was but little animation on the streets, those having fires judging warm rooms more congenial quarters than the wintry conditions without. The churches had average congregations at both the morning and night services. The only ministers from abroad who officiated were Rev. J. M. Nourse, at the Second Presbyterian Church, and Rev. Father Devitt, S. J., at St. Mary's Church.

River Notes.

The steamer Harry Randall, due here yesterday evening from the lower river, failed to arrive, the steamer having run aground at Colton's wharf. The schooner John Haginins, from Severn river with sand to the Old Dominion Glass Works, has arrived at W. A. Smoot & Co's wharf.

ANNUAL MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Elks' Lodge of Sorrow—Large Gathering of Members and Friends of the Order—Interesting and Impressive Services.

Wherever lodges of Elks have been established throughout the world impressive services were held yesterday in respect to the memory of deceased members of the order. The occasion is known as memorial day, and the members of the organization concentrate their exertions in order to properly observe the same. It is a pretty custom, and has been made part of the liturgy of other orders since it was introduced by the Elks years ago.

Alexandria Lodge, No. 758, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, had for some time been preparing for the occasion, and although the lodge has been in existence less than a year the affair from first to last was perfect in every particular. The addresses were pathetic, the prayers inspiring and the vocal and instrumental music all that could have been desired. About three hundred persons were present and the services occupied about an hour and a half. There was a general concurrence in the expression that "it was good to have been there," and all experienced the benefits derived from being present on such an occasion.

The lodge room on the southeast corner of Prince and Royal streets had been decorated with ferns and palms and every arrangement made for the memorial services. At a quarter past three o'clock, the members and their friends having arrived, the services were commenced. Exalted Ruler G. F. Bradley presided. Mr. Samuel Gompers, who is a member of the Washington Lodge, and who was the principal speaker of the occasion sat at the exalted ruler's right and Rev. Father H. J. Cutler, the chaplain of the lodge, occupied the seat on his left. An overture by the orchestra was followed by impressive ceremonies, participated in by the officers and the members of the lodge. Father Cutler, who delivered the opening prayer, prefaced it by a brief address, in which he congratulated the lodge on the fact that the hand of death had not yet made a vacancy in its ranks and commended the feature of the order which provides for a fitting remembrance of its departed brothers. The following programme of exercises followed:

Overture, (selected), orchestra; opening ceremonies, officers and members of the lodge; prayer, Rev. H. J. Cutler; quartette (Jesus Lover of my Soul), Birenmore quartette; baritone solo (Redemption), Mr. P. F. Doveney; baritone solo (Face to Face), Mr. Robert Wenzel; (I Will Arise), Mr. W. H. Stephens; overture, (selected), orchestra; quartette, (Lead Kindly Light), Birenmore quartette; baritone solo, (Thy Will Be Done), Mr. James Hicks; selection, orchestra, baritone solo, (Recessional), Mr. George Evans; selections, Birenmore quartette; closing ceremonies, officers and members of the lodge; benediction, Rev. P. P. Phillips; "Nearer My God to Thee," lodge and audience, Mr. Sherman Fowler, accompanist.

Mr. C. C. Carlin was on the programme for an address on behalf of Alexandria Lodge, but he had been called out of the city on business and was compelled to send his regrets.

Immediately after the services a committee of the lodge entertained Mr. Gompers and those who had contributed to the musical part of the programme at a dinner at the Hotel Fleischmann. Covers were laid for fourteen. A large number of members of Alexandria lodge went to Washington last night to attend the memorial services of the lodge there.

Mr. Barley Succeeds Judge Norton.

As will be seen by a telegraphic dispatch in another column of the Gazette, Mr. Louis C. Barley was today elected by the Legislature Judge of the Corporation Court to succeed Judge J. K. M. Norton, resigned. This, of course, had been anticipated, as Mr. Barley had the almost unanimous endorsement of his fellow-members of the bar in this city, as well as that of his other friends and acquaintances here. Upon the receipt in Richmond of the action of the bar in this city a caucus was called for tonight and preparations made for the immediate election of Mr. Barley. This course was necessary from the fact that should no successor to Judge Norton be elected prior to Wednesday no session of the Corporation Court could have been held until January, as the law requires that tribunal to meet on the second Monday of each month or not later than two days thereafter. Realizing the urgency of the occasion and there being no opposition to Mr. Barley, Mr. Caton had the caucuses called off and the election held today, and in so doing will render it possible for court to be held Wednesday evening. The selection of Mr. Barley to preside over the court meets with the approbation of his many friends. He is an Alexandrian, native and to the manner-born, has an extensive circle of friends and acquaintances here and elsewhere, all of whom rejoice with him in his election to this important position.

Broke the Record.

Three glassblowers in the employ of the Old Dominion Glass Company of this city—John, Arthur and William Schwarzmann—have broken the record for such work in their line in the United States. On Friday last, in a working day of eight and a half hours, they blew and packed 329 dozen plain beer bottles. The previous record was held by three glassblowers at Massillon, Ohio, and was 309 dozen in the same time.

Fire on the Strand.

About half-past one o'clock this afternoon fire was discovered in the building on the Strand, between King and Prince streets, occupied by J. Dreifus & Co. The engines and truck made a prompt response and after some trouble the fire was succeeded in quenching the flames which had started on the second floor. Considerable damage, however, resulted to the articles stored therein before the fire was gotten thoroughly under control.

Advertising and Rating.

It is noted by an advertising periodical that appearances go far in this world, which is not surprising in view of the fact that the public must judge almost exclusively from appearances. The point is that the establishment which is extensively advertised is always regarded as prosperous and enterprising and such as most people prefer to deal with.

Runaway.

The horse attached to a delivery wagon of E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists of this city, ran away near the intersection of C street and New Jersey avenue, in Washington, Saturday afternoon. John Darling, living in this city, who was driving the horse, was thrown out and painfully injured, the wheels of the wagon passing over his back. He was brought to his home in this city where he received medical attention.
